Dear John,

We need to get E.306 ready for the coming year, and since Lance will be the director, he and his committee should play a major role.

I am asking John Slatin, Sheila Kearns, and Beth Hedrick to serve on the freshman committee with Lance. I think that they, with your assistance, should begin preparations right away.

The immediate problem is the selection of texts for the coming year. I asked Lance to get you, Wayne Lesser, and Valerie Balester together to make recommendations on who the AI consultants should be. The text selection committee did such a thorough job last year that I should think this year's group should have a fairly easy time.

Sincerely,

Bill
