MEMORANDUM

To: Freshman English Policy Committee

From: Susan Jarratt

Date: April 17, 1984

There will be a meeting of the FEPC Friday, April 20 at 2 p.m. in Parlin 214. The agenda will be as follows:

- I. Choice of Assistant Director
- II. Adoption of readers

FRESHMAN ENGLISH POLICY COMMITTEE

MINUTES

April 13, 1984

Attending: McMurrey, Simon, Underwood, Daniell, Jarratt, Jolliffe,
Trachsel

Absent: LeClercq, Myers, Ruszkiewicz, Westbrook

In the absence of the director and the associate director, the assistant director was in charge of the meeting. We briefly plotted a bloodless coup; then we approved the minutes of the previous meeting.

The committee considered variant text requests, approving Beth Daniell's requests. The committee decided to ask David Hadley for a statement clarifying how he intends to use Goshgarian's anthology, Exploring Language, in E306 since the book's organization is different from any of our accepted readers.

The committee considered the personnel subcommittee's recommendation for assistant director. Jolliffe moved and Trachsel seconded that the committee direct the personnel subcommittee to interview Mara Holt and Clare Colquitt for the position. The motion passed unanimously.

The committee considered the proposed syllabus for summer E306, prepared by Ruszkiewicz. Jolliffe moved and Trachsel seconded a motion to approve it. Simon offered a friendly amendment that Ruszkiewicz also make available a more traditional syllabus for summer E306. The motion passed unanimously.

Following a discussion of new text adoptions, Jolliffe moved and Trachsel seconded (getting monotonous, isn't it?) that the committee adopt the following rhetorics:

1. Bridges and Lunsford, Writing: Discovering Form and Meaning (Wadsworth)
2. McClelland, Writing Practice (Longman's)

The motion passed 4 to 0, with 2 abstentions.

The committee decided to defer action on adopting readers until the next meeting.

The committee adjourned at 3:50 p.m.
